Honorable Victor L. Anfuso
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

Dear Victor:

Thank you very much for your thoughtfulness in sending me by special delivery on 27 June 1961, a copy of the letter which you had written to Attorney General Kennedy, and the Concurrent Resolution which you propose to introduce in Congress after the July 4 recess.

As you undoubtedly appreciate, this is a matter within the purview of other Departments of the Government, but I am naturally interested in keeping abreast of developments.

With very best wishes.

Sincerely,

GW
